Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead the assessment of IC finished intelligence products, evaluate the application of IC Analytic Standards in analytic products, produce evaluation reports and studies, and discuss performance in collaborative settings with consumers, including ODNI leadership, IC managers, analysts and trainers, and Congressional Oversight Committees.
- Advise on analytic tradecraft issues; lead inter-agency teams of analytic experts to develop and advance analytic tradecraft guidelines, enhance analytic evaluation methodology and metrics development, and develop new and effective ways to translate evaluation results and feedback into improved analytic product quality across the IC.
- Lead the Analytic Standards and Evaluation Action Group and advance the integration of IC evaluation programs, best practices, and lessons learned.
- Understand, drive usage, and improve computer-based training and interactive products in support of evaluation and tradecraft.
- Cultivate and maintain positive customer and stakeholder relationships in order to gather input and feedback on analytic evaluation issues; prepare effective written and oral presentations for senior and executive level customers.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge of ICD-203 Analytic Standards, analytic evaluation methods and tools, ability to plan and conduct complex methodological analyses, and ability to manage and assess complex datasets.
- Superior ability to represent AIS on sensitive, controversial, or difficult interpretations of analytical findings or results, superior ability to clearly present statistical and other information in briefings or written products,
